MORMON METHODS.

Arouse Opposition in England.

THE POLICY OF THE PORTE.

A Pasha Not Polite to an Ambassador.

England Demands An Apology For the Affront.

Mormon Methods.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—At the Doncaster September meeting to-day the race for the St. Leger stakes was won by Common.

Public opinion in Great Britain at present is turning with indignation upon the Mormon crusade being made in many country districts. Revelations just made show that the Mormon "missionaries" are at present working in Great Britain and in Scandinavia. Particular attention has been called, by the press, to the operations of two young Mormon "missionaries" who have been operating in the village of Lancashire, and some strange discoveries as to proselyting methods adopted were made. The result has been another upheaval of public indignation, and probably another and more determined attempt will be made to find some means of putting a stop to this trans-Atlantic traffic in women. Revelations just made were brought about through the public ventilation and exposure of methods of the Latter Day Saints.

Chilians Going for Cole.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Counsel on behalf of the Chilean Junta applied to the High Court for an order restraining owners and officers of the steamer Mosello from parting possession with Chilean silver with which she is expected to arrive at Southampton this week, except by depositing the same in the Bank of England. The Junta also applies for an order restraining the Plata bank which made advances against the silver in question, from endorsing bills relating thereto. The Judge allowed the notice to be served for next Wednesday. In the meantime temporary restraining orders were granted.

Death of an Editor.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The following cablegram was received this morning at the Mail and Express office from Minister Reid in Paris: "Major Bundy died last night in the Grand Hotel from apoplexy, resulting from advanced stage of Bright's disease. He never regained consciousness. The body will be embalmed and placed in the receiving vault of the American Church of Avenue Del Alma. (Signed) Whitelaw Reid."

Fall of a Pasha.

By Cable and Associated Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 9.—There is no doubt that Kaimil Pasha's fall is due to his supposed Anglophile policy in regard to Egypt and Yemen. The recent revolution in Yemen is believed by the Sultan to have been fomented by the English. Owing to a slight received some time ago, the British Ambassador declines to re-visit the Sultan unless his office ally is invited. It is reported that Kaimil Pasha is under police surveillance.

Policy of the Porte.

By Cable and Associated Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 9.—An official communication, notifying the powers of the recent changes made in the composition of the Turkish Ministry, says these changes do not imply any modification of the general European policy of the Porte, adding that the latter continues to be guided by the principles of reform at home and peace abroad.

England's Demands.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Dispatches to the Standard from Constantinople say the Ambassador at Constantinople a few days ago sent a strong note to the Porte demanding an apology for indignities offered to British vessels in the Dardanelles.

A Sick Queen.

By Cable and Associated Press.

VENICE, Sept. 9.—The Queen of Roumania, who, with her husband, King Charles of Roumania, is stopping at a hotel in this city, is pronounced to be dangerously ill.

Cold Water Cranks.

By Associated Press.

WORCESTER (Mass.), Sept. 9.—The Prohibition State Convention was called to order this morning by W. H. Partridge, temporary chairman. On taking his chair, Partridge addressed the convention at great length. At the close of the chairman's address many others were made, and the committee on resolutions reported.

The platform assails the liquor traffic in the usual manner and calls for its absolute suppression. It denounces high license or any license, and demands the dissolution of the partnership now existing between the government, State and National, and the rum power. Points out to the supporters of missions that Boston is foremost in the exportation of rum to "darkest Africa," and that the traffic has doubled during the past year.

The seventh plank is as follows: "We deplore the depth of degradation to which the national department of State descended in becoming 'drummer' in foreign lands for the beer lords of this country. Add to this the other facts of a refusal to unite with other nations for the suppression of the slave trade and rum traffic in Africa; a President who finds five kinds of wine necessary for his official banquets; a Vice-President who applies for a liquor license for his 'Shoreham'; a Senate that will not banish a bar-room from its wing of the capitol, and a House that strangles all inquiries into facts of the liquor traffic, and we have a perfect demonstration of the complete dominancy of the rum power in our national affairs and of the slavish subserviency of our public servants to its behest. The remedies which the party proposed are 'prohibition by State and National authority' of the manufacture, importation and exportation, transportation or sale of alcoholic beverages, and the election and appointment of officials, executive, legislative and judiciary, in sympathy with and who will enforce prohibition."

These ends, they believe, are attainable only through a party organized for that purpose. The platform also favors the appointment rather than the election of prosecuting officers, for the same reason that judges are appointed, and declared in favor of female suffrage and a strict enforcement of the civil service law.

Augustus Smith was chosen permanent chairman, after which the convention took a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Methodist Conference.

Special to the Gazette.

PACIFIC GROVE, Sept. 9.—The Methodist conference opened this morning by the singing of a hymn, a prayer by Presiding Elder W. S. Urmy and the reading of scriptures by Presiding Elder Board. Bishop Mallat read the ritual of the sacrament of the Lord's supper, when about 500 preachers and laymen partook of sacrament. The conference roll was then called, which consists of 221 members. Then followed routine business of the appointment of committees, and the reports of preachers, statistical and financial, for the past year. Presiding Elder Urmy of Napa district read the encouraging, though humorous report of the work in his district. Contributions per member, of two or three towns on his district, were as follows: Sacramento gave, for all purposes, $13.90 per member; Napa, $13.88; Oakland, $13.69; San Francisco, $11.90.

Injunction Against Inspection.

By Associated Press.

FARGO (N. D.), Sept. 9.—Besides a temporary restraining order secured by the railroad agents against the breaking of car seals for the inspection of grain by the Commissioners, a bill in equity was filed by the Great Northern, which recites their inability to properly inspect at night, and consequently delay of transit if the law is enforced. The bill says the order of the board discriminates in favor of the Northwestern, Soo and Milwaukee roads. The orders of the Railroad Commissioners are claimed to be contrary to inter-state commerce law. Similar papers were served by the Northern Pacific.

Mercantile Conference.

By Cable and Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 9.—The Russian government has accepted the invitation of the United States to send a representative to a conference to be held shortly, where the formation of an International Bureau for the exchange of intelligence as to mercantile failures will be discussed.

Italy Orders Rifles.

By Cable and Associated Press.

ROME, Sept. 9.—The Italian government has sent an urgent order for 50,000 rifles to the Terni factory and has instructed General Ricotti to minutely inspect the rifles in the Alpine district.

REPUBLICANS MEET

To Nominate a Ticket in New York.

MATCHLESS MAN FROM MAINE.

Wildly Cheered Whenever Mentioned.

President Also Complimented With Applause.

New York Republicans.

By Associated Press.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 9.—At noon General Knapp, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Republican State Convention to order. He spoke briefly and his reference to the "Matchless man from Maine" was received with terrific and prolonged applause. W. W. Goodrich was then chosen temporary Chairman. On taking the chair he made an address.

Goodrich pointed with pride to the record of the Republican party since its foundation and said four years of Democratic rule convinced the people of the duty of recalling the partial power conferred upon a party which has been on the wrong side ever since the days when it championed the extension of human slavery into the free territory of the northwest. At the last election, however, it again obtained a majority of the lower House of Congress. This was accomplished by a campaign of colossal lying and deception. He pointed with pride to the pure, sagacious and conservative administration of President Harrison; to the growing commerce of the country under reciprocity with our American neighbors, induced by the matchless foresight of Secretary Blaine, and to a navy already ranking with those of other great maritime powers of the world.

The speaker reviewed the tariff question at great length and spoke in high praise of the McKinley bill. Upon the subject of silver he said: "An honest dollar for an honest debt. We applaud the courageous utterances of President Harrison in his recent speech at Albany. This is to be a campaign of education and not of deception. The Republican party never fears investigation of its practices. The Democratic party, like a lizard, changes color according to its environs. At the South it stands for prohibition, in the north for free run; on the Pacific Coast and mountains it demands the free coinage of silver; in the Ohio convention it adopted a free coinage plank by a bare majority and placed a hard money man upon it, and at the East it demands gold and silver coinage on an equal basis. We sorrowfully behold the Governor of this State as he stands like a modern Colossus, with one foot in the executive chamber at Albany and the other in the Senate chamber at Washington, his hands grasping the lever of the Democratic machine, which he controls by filling public offices with his subversive tools, his eyes greedily fixed on the Presidential chair, in which he will never sit; pandering with the liquor interest, playing with the question of honest money, cheating laboring men by defeating for years the Australian ballot system; obstructing the entire legislation of the State to prevent investigation of his partisan water rates in the canal, and rising to no higher level than a ward politician. Verily the coming contest is that of Hilliam grafted on to Tammanyism against the political conscience of the voters of the commonwealth, and on such an issue we shall suffer no defeat."

When reference was made by Goodrich to President Harrison and Secretary Blaine in connection with the recent reciprocity measures, there was a hearty cheering about evenly divided between the two. The usual committees were appointed and a recess taken until 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is believed the convention will finish today. There will be a bitter contest over the nomination for the head of the ticket.

In General Knapp's address he said success this year meant success next year, whether the party was led by the soldier and statesman now occupying the executive chair (applause) or by that matchless man from Maine. At this there was wild and tumultuous applause and cheering. Some one proposed three cheers for J. G. Blaine and they were given with a vim.

Gene a Fishing.

By Associated Press.

CAPE MAY POINT (N. J.), Sept. 9.—President Harrison with a party started out this morning for a gunning and fishing trip in Cape May sound.

Admission Day.

Special to the Gazette.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Admission Day was generally observed as a holiday in this city, nearly all business houses as well as public buildings being closed except for a short time in the forenoon.

Flags floated from many buildings and in the harbor the United States ship Pensacola and other vessels were neatly decorated with bunting. A light shower of rain fell early in the forenoon and was followed by alternate spells of sunshine and cloudy weather. This did not deter a large number of picnickers, including the Pioneers and other societies, from leaving the city for Sanilito, El Campo, Ukiah and other points. In this city the various athletic entertainments were well attended.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 9.—The celebration of Admission Day by the Native Sons from all parts of the State was a grand success and one of the most enthusiastic and imposing demonstrations ever seen in this State outside of San Francisco. Although a majority of the parlor did not arrive until long past midnight and it was 2 o'clock this morning when the reception and parade was concluded, yet Sons and Daughters were astir early, as fresh to all appearances as flowers in the gardens.

The grand parade, under the Grand Marshal of the Order, Frank Mattison, formed at 11 o'clock, and at 1 p. m. was dismissed at the Plaza. The route of the procession led through the principal streets, and when it counter-marched on Pacific Avenue the double line filled the entire length of the street for over a mile. The appearance of the parade was complemented by all the spectators. The parade was formed in eight divisions, most of the parlor present being represented by good turn-outs. Many uniforms were very neat. The Sons were frequently and enthusiastically cheered on the line of march. Golden Gate Parlor, which came down in the tug Relief, wore so-called hats, belts of life preservers and each carried an oar. They were cheered with great enthusiasm. Mission Parlor, which came down on the steamer Del Norte, turned out with the fullest ranks of any visiting parlor. The members of Piedmont Parlor, who drove down in carriages, were also the recipients of much applause. The Exempt Firemen from San Francisco, who brought down "the old macehen," were also a conspicuous feature in the procession. Santa Cruz county Pioneers rode in carriages; for the first time the sturdy pioneers of this county have consented to relieve themselves from marching on such an occasion. A single representation of the Los Angeles Parlor and one from San Luis Obispo were present marching under a huge parasol inscribed "Two Orphans." The Veteran Guard, G. A. R., was a special escort to Stanford Parlor and presented a fine appearance. Watsonville Parlor was accompanied by a Zouave company of thirty young misses under 16 years of age, who have made themselves very proficient in military tactics and performed many graceful evolutions on the line of march. Observatory Parlor No. 177, of San Jose, the youngest Parlor in the order, brought up the rear of the procession with a fine appearance with a company of young men bearing a miniature Mount Hamilton with the Lick Observatory. The literary exercises will be held at the Opera House this afternoon; there will also be a ball game, a balloon ascension, besides fraternal entertainment; a grand ball at the Pavilion this evening, a bullhead breakfast on a mammoth scale and many entertainments planned for to-morrow.

Honduras Election.

By Associated Press.

TEGUCIGALPA (Honduras), Sept. 9.—The Presidential election, which was held on Sunday, was quietly conducted and no serious disturbance at any part of the Republic has been reported. Returns received from various parts of the country show Ponciano Leiba, the nominee of the Progressive party, was the more popular candidate and his election is assured. Borrilla, the candidate of the opposition and Socialists, is left far in the rear by his opponent.

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.—A private telegram received here from Lincoln, Neb., states that John Fitzgerald, President of the Irish National League, is very ill, and that no hopes of his recovery are entertained.

The schooner Rose Sparks from San Francisco capsize off Point Reyes last night and one of her crew was drowned.

Muddled the Mail.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The British post-office officials have so muddled mail matters in connection with this end of the transportation of the Empress of Japan's mails, which arrived at Queenstown yesterday from New York by the Inman line steamship, City of New York, reaching there in twenty-five days from Yokohama that the entire gloss is rubbed off this lightning trip. Such was the confused condition of the British postal officials at Queenstown that only the Irish mails were landed at the port. The rest of the mail bags were taken to Liverpool where the North of England mail was distributed. The remaining mail bags were then started for London on a special train, where they arrived at 11:30 A. M. Some of this mail matter was delivered about an hour later, but at the London general post-office no special effort was made in any direction to back the efforts which have been made in the attempt to deliver the Japanese mails in London in unprecedentedly good time.

To Release the Itata.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Star this afternoon prints a statement that the Itata is to be returned to the Chilean Government in accordance with the terms of the compromise effected at the conference between ex-Mayor Grace of New York and the Chilean Congressional representative here, on one hand and Secretary Tracy and Attorney General Miller on the other. It is not an unconditional surrender of the vessel and simply a back-down of the part of the United States, though it is very generally agreed now that the Itata could not be held by the United States. The terms of the agreement are that the Chilean Government is to pay the United States a sum equal to the expense incurred in pursuing and capturing the Itata and that then the case will be nolle prossed in the courts and the vessel turned over to the new Chilean Government.

Trades Union.

By Associated Press.

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 9.—The Trades Union Congress resumed its deliberations to-day. Proceedings up to the present disclosed that, among the new trades unions and newer members of old trades unions there is a predominance of feeling which shows they are deeply imbued with socialism and kindred doctrines. At the resumption of business to-day, by a vote of 242 to 156, a motion to the effect that a bill reducing or affixing the hours of labor ought to be of a permissive or optional character, was carried after considerable discussion. An amendment proposed to the eight-hour international law was recommended in substance, but the eight-hour law when passed shall not be enforced without the consent of two-thirds of the organized members of the trades concerned.

In order to present to the world what Nevada is capable of doing in an agricultural way, the GAZETTE will arrange anything sent to it, in an attractive manner at the Pavilion during Fair week. Apples and other fruit, grain of all kinds, potatoes of different varieties, vegetables of every description, hay, etc., will be arranged, due credit given, and everything necessary to make an attractive display, carried out. We make this offer in order to enable those who cannot come to the Fair to send something; and again a farmer who cannot afford the time, for instance, of preparing but one box of apples for exhibition would hesitate about putting it in alone, when, if exhibited in a State collection, it would show off to better advantage. Parties sending in any article can rest assured of having it properly entered, and if awarded a premium the same will be forwarded to them as soon as collected. Exhibits are respectfully solicited, not only from the farmers in Nevada, but from those in Lassen, Modoc, Sierra and Plumas counties, California. All who wish to avail themselves of our offer should carefully mark their names on the articles sent and write the GAZETTE that such and such a thing had been sent for exhibition. It will save us lots of trouble by sending the truck for exhibition the week before Fair.

In the death of Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, an account of which appeared in the GAZETTE's telegraphic columns last night, the bench and bar sustained an almost irreparable loss. Judge Sawyer practiced law in partnership with E. F. W. Ellis in Nevada City and also with Stanton Buckner. In 1853 he again removed to San Francisco and he has resided there ever since. He was appointed City Attorney soon after he arrived there. During his term of office no judgment was obtained against the city, and of those which were obtained in favor of the city only one was reversed on appeal. In 1855 he was defeated in the State Convention for the nomination of Supreme Judge by six votes. He formed a law partnership with Charles H. S. Williams in the Spring of 1861, and this continued until he was appointed Judge of the Twelfth District Court by Governor Stanford in May, 1862. The District embraced San Francisco and San Mateo counties. In 1863 he was elected a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State on the Republican ticket, and he drew the middle term, for six years. The last two years of his term he acted as Chief Justice. He was appointed Judge of the United States Circuit Court of the ninth circuit by President Grant in 1869. During his long term of upward of thirty years on the Bench in this State many cases of much importance were decided by him. Among one of the more famous of these was that of Tiburcio Parrott on habeas corpus. He was an indefatigable and careful worker. He was in chambers early in the morning, sometimes as early as 7:30 o'clock, often remaining until 5 p.m. He was also to be found at his office on Sundays studying up his cases. He was in court promptly at the time for assembling. He allowed little time for his lunch. He was hard at work at all times. It is related that he has been known to work three months, locked in his chamber, over a single decision. There are many instances of his conscientious devotion to work which are quoted by those who came in contact with him in connection with the court. He was prominently identified with the Masonic order in California, of which he was the Grand Orator in 1879. He made many public addresses. Among those that have been preserved is the address upon "The Judiciary," made before the Associated Alumni of the Supreme Court of California. In that address he said: "The bar is the fountain from which the judiciary is to be continually replenished, and as it is a well-established principal in natural philosophy that the stream can never rise higher than the fountain which supplies it, so the Bench can never rise far above the level of the bar." His oratory was pleasing and his treatment of the subject was philosophical and abounded in pleasing periods. He delivered the address at the laying of the cornerstone of the Leland Stanford Junior University, in his capacity as President of the Board of Trustees. Some years ago the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon him by Hamilton College in recognition of his attainments and public services. For a long time Judge Sawyer's health has been very poor. He has expected to resign his office, but a partial recovery of health has led him to appear occasionally upon the Bench during the past few months. He sat with Justice Field upon the occasion of the organization in this city of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. His death, following so soon after the death of Judge Ogden Hoffman leaves the Northern district of California without a Federal Judge.

A DEVOTED MAID.

She Resented Any Reflection on Her "Missus."

People who strive to elevate certain classes in the social fabric, often find, to their surprise, that these very persons jealously guard the barriers of class distinctions. The following illustration of that fact is given by the author of "Four Years in Rebel Captivity."

A Richmond lady had a maid who was devoted and constant to her mistress—still burned with curiosity for a sight of everything pertaining to "Mars' Linkum's men," and especially for "de skule." For swift indeed had newcomers been to preach the gospel of Alphabet, and negro schools seemed to have been brought in by every army ambulance, so numerous did they spring up in the captured capital. So, one day, Clarissa Sophia donned her very best, and with shining face, bled her, like anything but a snail, to school. Very brief was her absence, her return reticent, but pointing and with unduly tiptoeled nose.

"It soon came out that the teacher had begun by impressing the children with the fact that all present were born 'free and equal,' and that each of them was quite as good as she was."

"Wa' dat yo's sayin' now?" interrupted Clarissa Sophia. "Yo' say I see jes' ekeal as yo' is?"

"Yes, I said so, and I will prove it to you."

"Ho! 'tain't no need," was the response. "Reck'n I is, sho' nuff. But does yo' say dat I see good as missus, my missus?"

"Certainly you are."

"Den I see jes' gwine out yere, right off," cried Clarissa Sophia, suiting action to word. "Ef I see good as my missus, I see goin' ter quit, fer I jes' know she ekeal 'soshatin' wid no such white trash like you is!"
